We know that finding insurance can be confusing so we want to help get you started.

When you apply for coverage you will need to provide some information about yourself, and possibly other family members. To make the process easier use this check list to get prepared.

1. Are your parents claiming you as a dependent on their taxes this year (2015)?
   - Yes
   - No

2. What state will you be filing your taxes for 2015?
   - Idaho
   - Other states __________________________________________

   • If your parents do not claim you as a dependent and you will file taxes in Idaho, you can purchase insurance through the Idaho insurance exchange.
     - For More information visit Your Health Idaho.

   • If your parents will be claiming you as a dependent on their taxes for 2015, and you are under the age of 26, you may want to contact your parents to see if you can be added to their insurance plan.
     - If you cannot be added to a parents plan, you can still purchase a plan through the exchange, however, you will not be eligible for subsidies or cost sharing benefits.

The benefits of enrolling on a healthcare exchange are you may be eligible for savings on your monthly premiums and cost sharing reductions. To see if you are eligible for cost savings on the Idaho exchange go to https://www.yourhealthidaho.org/enrollment-resources/estimate-savings/.

To see if you are eligible for cost savings on other state plan go to healthcare.gov.

If you will be enrolling in an exchange plan be sure to bring the following information with you:

   - Birthdates (of everyone in your household)
   - Social security numbers for everyone on your application
   - Tax returns for the previous year
   - Income information (W-2 forms, pay stubs)
   - Citizenship or Immigration status (this only applies to legal immigrants)
   - Insurance information for any current health insurance coverage
